

BUSINESS NH

M A G A Z I N E

MARCH 2023

$6.00

EMBRACING THE

DEI

CULTURE SHIFT

page 34

P-1 P64
1128

MANCHESTER NH 03102-3369
575 RIMMON ST APT 3
WRITER
RYAN LESSARD
BNH 7524

SCH 5-DIGIT 03102

for NH public policy at Bi-State Primary Care Association in Bow.

SolutionHealth in Bedford named Michael Turilli as CFO for the health care system. He previously served as senior VP and CFO for Elliot Health System in Manchester.

Turilli

■ LAW

Pierce Atwood in Portsmouth added trusts and estates attorneys Marla Matthews and Jan Myskowski, as partners of the firm.

Shaheen & Gordon promoted Attorney Stephanie Annunziata to partner and hired Attorney Crystal Maldonado. Annunziata is based out of the firm's Concord office while Maldonado is based out of Manchester.

Annunziata

■ NONPROFIT

The NH Community Loan Fund in Concord elected to its board of directors: Pamela Laflamme director of strategic initiatives and assistant city manager for the City of Berlin; and James Kerouac, a shareholder with Bernstein, Shur, Sawyer & Nelson, P.A. in Manchester.

The NH Fiscal Policy Institute in Concord appointed Justin Slattery, executive director of the Belknap Economic Development Council, to its board of directors.

Spaulding Academy & Family Services in Northfield named Courtney Constant as director of development and community relations, and promoted Nick Silva to director of admissions.

Constant

Swim With A Mission (SWAM) in Bedford added Mark J. Aquilino, president and CEO of Outdoor Pride Landscape and Snow Management in Manchester, to its board of directors.

Silva

SWAM raises money to support organizations that provide critical services to veterans.

The Upper Valley Trails Alliance (UVTA) added three new board members: John Beyer, operating advisor to Tuckerman Capital in Hanover; Chet Clem, president of Lyme Properties in West Lebanon; and Geo Honigford who recently transitioned from farming to rehabilitating older houses and lives in South Royalton, Vermont.

■ REAL ESTATE

Veteran construction leader and developer Mike Dion joined Kevin Lacasse, CEO of New England Family Housing in New Hampton, and Deane Navaroli, principal of William & Reeves CRE in Hollis, as a member of the partnership team developing Monitor Way. They plan to build about 650 housing units in a 95-acre mixed-use development near the Concord Monitor in Concord. With Dion as co-signer, the team has optioned the roughly 40 acres owned by the Concord Regional Solid Waste Co-op just north of the original project site and just south of the new Market Basket development.

Dion

Big Deals

■ ACCOUNTING

Baker Newman Noyes opened a location at 75 Portsmouth Boulevard in Portsmouth. It features a training and education center, offices and adaptable workspaces that support the firm's transition to a 'hotel-ing' work model.

■ ARTS

Bank of America announced a second $250,000 grant to support Nashua Community Arts opening the Nashua Center for the Arts in April. As part of the bank's $500,000 total commitment, the theater will be known as the Bank of America Theater at

The Nashua Center for the Arts under construction the Nashua Center for the Arts. The theater has seating for 750 people.

■ DONATIONS & GRANTS

The Endowment for Health received a $7 million gift from the MacKenzie Scott Foundation in recognition of the Endowment's work to support the voices and opportunities of people from underserved communities. In turn, the Endowment made a first round of awards totaling $947,500 to NH community organizations.

Douglas Cuddle Toys in Keene, the Monadnock Broadcasting Group/KNE-FM and Savings Bank of Walpole helped raise more than $36,000 during the 2022 Good Friends campaign, which benefited Feeding Tiny Tummies, a nonprofit in Keene that provides food for children across Cheshire and Sullivan counties.

Representatives from Savings Bank of Walpole and the Monadnock Broadcasting Group/KNE-FM present a check to Feeding Tiny Tummies.

The Greater Rochester Community Health Foundation gave a total of $80,000 in operating grants to eight nonprofits that serve the residents of Strafford County.

The Littleton Food Co-op's round-up program at the cash register raised $73,075.52 in 2022, which benefited several area nonprofits.

From left: Littleton Food Co-op staff Ashley Wallingford, IT manager; Chris Whiton, operations manager; Minnie Cushing, finance manager; Ed King, general manager; Brian Labonte, assistant operations manager; and Andy Brackett, facilities manager

The Meredith Sculpture Walk recently received a $10,000 donation to celebrate its